BC Law Announces New Fellowship Program

04/29/09--BOSTON COLLEGE LAW SCHOOL IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE CREATION OF A NEW POST-GRADUATE PROGRAM, THE EAGLE SCHOLAR FELLOWSHIP.

04/29/09--Boston College Law School is pleased to announce the creation of a new post-graduate program, the Eagle Scholar Fellowship.

The Fellowship is designed for graduates who are interested in a career in law teaching or in writing as a component of their career in practice. There is no stipend, but the program will give participants the resources and mentoring necessary to complete a law review article of publishable quality.

The program consists of a weekly seminar in the fall semester, faculty mentors for each participant, and the option to audit one or two additional courses at the Law School, free of charge.

Recent BC Law graduates, or third-year students with employment start dates in December 2009 or after, are eligible to apply for this program. Review of applications will begin on June 8, 2009, and acceptance is on a rolling-basis.
