Twelve BC Law Students Among Clough Center Fellows

2015 NEWS ARCHIVE

09/14/15

Newton, MA—Boston College Law School is pleased to announce that 12 students have been awarded affiliation with The Clough Center for the Study of Constitutional Democracy at Boston College through the Center's 2015-16 Fellows and Scholars Program. They will join the Center's Graduate fellows (doctoral students from across the University) and Junior Fellows.

Nicole Cardamone, Daniel Edelstein, Hannah Farhan, Sonja Marrett and Lauren Schaal have been appointed Clough Public Interest Scholars. Consistent with the Center's mission to support students committed to service to others, the Clough Center provides grants to Boston College first- and second-year law students for uncompensated public interest work, in the United States or abroad, during the summer.
