1-12-1838

Letter to Lemuel Shaw from John Prince, January 12, 1838

Lemuel Shaw

Follow this and additional works at: http://lawdigitalcommons.bc.edu/rbr_shaw

Part of the Legal Commons, Legal History, Theory and Process Commons, and the United States History Commons

Digital Commons Citation

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Daniel R. Coquillette Rare Book Room at Digital Commons @ Boston College Law School. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Correspondence of Lemuel Shaw by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Boston College Law School. For more information, please contact nick.szydlowski@bc.edu.
Salem Jan 5 12th 1838.

Hon. L. Shaw Esq.

Dear Sir,

For your very friendly letter I the delicate manner of communicating it, I cannot express all my grateful feelings, they are sincere I will be lasting.

you may rest assured that hereafter there shall never be any real foundation for imputations of the kind alluded to.

I hope to be able to allowed to continue my services in the office to perform all of them as I have always endeavoured to do, with correctness I count on.

With respect,

Yrs John Prince
John Price Esq
12 Jan. 1838.

Paid Aug. 27

Hon. Lemuel Shaw

Boston
Salem Jan. 12th 1838

Hon. L. Shaw Esq.

Dear Sir

For your very friendly letter & the delicate manner of communicating it, I cannot express all my grateful feelings, they are sincere & will be lasting.

You may rest assured that hereafter there shall never be any real foundation for imputations of the kind alluded to.

I hope to be able & allowed to continue my services in the Clerk's office & to perform all of them as I have always endeavored to do, with correctness & courtesy.

With respect

yours John Prince
Salem Jan' 12th 1838

Hon. L. Shaw Esqr

Dear Sir

For your very friendly letter & the delicate manner of communicating it, I cannot express all my grateful feelings, they are sincere & will be lasting.

You may rest assured that hereafter there shall never be any real foundation for imputations of the kind alluded to.

I hope to be able & allowed to continue my services in the Clerk’s Office & to perform all of them as I have always endeavoured to do, with correctness & courtesy.

With respect

Yrs John Prince

[back of letter]

John Prince Esq
12 Jan. 1838

Paid chg [No 97]

JP

Hon Lemuel Shaw
Boston