Study Abroad Panel Discussion on Dec. 2

11/24/04--The Boston College Law School International Law Society is pleased to announce a Study Abroad Panel Discussion, to take place in the Law School's East Wing room 115B on December 2, from 3:30-5:00 pm.

The discussion is designed for students who are interested in learning more about BC Law's International & Comparative Law Program and study abroad options. The panel will include students who will speak about their experiences and lessons learned throughout the process, and faculty who are active in International Law, as well as representatives from the Law School's Academic Services Office and Boston College's International Program Office about the process for applying for these programs and summer opportunities.

For more information, please contact Carline Durocher at durochec@bc.edu.
