I would like to congratulate you and your staff for publishing the first copy of the Boston College Third World Law Journal. This is a much-needed step in addressing the legal and civil rights concerns of Black, Hispanic, Asian Pacific and Native Americans. It is my hope that your journal will serve as an inspiration to our future generations of lawyers to better serve these communities.

I appreciate this opportunity to express my encouragement for your newly created journal.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator
