I am happy to have this opportunity to extend to you and your able staff hearty congratulations on the publication of the first edition of the Third World Law Journal. I am sure that it will be an outstanding addition to the list of distinguished publications of the Boston College School of Law.

In particular, I commend you for including in the scope of the Journal the existing legal problems of American minority groups as well as those of developing nations. I wish you great success in your new venture and hope you will call on me if I can be of any assistance.

Aloha and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Spark Matsunaga
U. S. Senator
