Former Rappaport Fellow Michelle Wu Sworn in as President of Boston City Council

NEWS ARCHIVE 2016

01/04/16

On Monday, January 4, 2016, former Rappaport Fellow Michelle Wu was sworn in as President of the Boston City Council in an unanimous vote. She is the first Asian-American and third woman to hold the position.

Wu was a 2010 Rappaport Fellow, having been selected for the summer following her first year at Harvard Law School. As part of the Fellowship Program, Wu spent that summer interning with the City of Boston in the Office of the Mayor's Chief of Staff. Wu remains connected to the Rappaport Center and served as a mentor this past summer to a 2015 Rappaport Fellow.

The Rappaport Center congratulates Michelle on her achievements and wishes her the best of luck as she embarks on her new role as President of the Boston City Council.
