Newton, MA--BC Law second-year student Jessica Frattaroli has been awarded a competitive fellowship for summer study of professional ethics in Germany.

"The Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics" enable students to explore how moral reasoning and the roles their profession played in Nazi Germany and during the Holocaust can inform contemporary ethical issues facing the profession.

Boston College School of Theology and Ministry students Michael Rozier, S.J., Nicholas Collura and Amy Chapman are previous FASPE fellowship winners.
