2/20/09--Boston College Law School jumped to No. 15 this year from No. 20 last year among the top 20 "go-to schools" for large law firm hiring, according to The National Law Journal (NLJ) Rankings.

BC Law sent 45.8% of its 2008 graduates to the nations 250 largest firms, compared with 36.8% of its 2007 graduates, which was among the largest gains on the list.

The list of 20 law schools whose students were recruited most heavily by the nations 250 largest firms was compiled from recruiting information those firms provided on the 2008 NLJ 250 Survey. This marks the third year that the NLJ has compiled this list of go-to schools.
